

Confusing adjectives: -ED or -ING?

1) Choose the correct adjective in each sentence.

- a. People who talk about football all the time are bored / boring.
- b. His painting skills are amazed / amazing.
- c. When Ann realized what a fool she'd made of herself, she felt terribly embarrassed / embarrassing.
- d. Don't go to that restaurant – the food is disgusted / disgusting !
- e. The film was so moved / moving that I cried at the end.
- f. Looking after children all day long is very tired / tiring. By the evening I'm completely exhausted / exhausting.
- g. I can't put this book down! It is excited / exciting.
- h. She is terrified / terrifying of spiders.

2) Write the correct form of the adjective: -ed or -ing?

- a. That boy is really _____ (annoy). I wish he would go away!
- b. She's a _____ (charm) woman and she tells _____ (fascinate) stories.
- c. After a _____ (relax) bath, she felt _____ (refresh).
- d. The theme park was _____ (disappoint). Most of the rides were really _____ (bore).
- e. My job is _____ (challenge) and I really enjoy it.
- f. Some of the students' exam results were _____ (disappoint), but on the whole, I'm quite _____ (satisfy) with their progress.