

What is the definition of a globe?

- A a flat map showing roads
- B a round model of the Earth
- C a map of the United States
- D a map of the city

Question #2

What kind of map is shown?

- A a globe of Tennessee
- B a road map of Tennessee
- C a weather map
- D a physical map of the United States

Question #3

What is a continent?

A	an agreement between two people
B	a land mass
C	an imaginary line between hemispheres
D	a cardinal direction

Question #4

The prime meridian_____.

A	divides the Eastern Hemisphere from the Western Hemisphere
B	is an imaginary line
C	crosses the equator
D	all of the above

Question #5

Where is the South Pole located?

A	It is located in the Southern Hemisphere.
B	It is located at the end of the equator.
C	It can be found at the North Pole.
D	It is in South America.

Question #6

Which of the following is not one of the land or water borders of the United States?

A	Canada
B	the Pacific Ocean
C	Mexico
D	the prime meridian

Question #7

Identify an example of a border.

A	the Northern Hemisphere
B	the South Pole
C	Australia
D	the Atlantic Ocean

Question #8

Which country lies to the south of the U.S. in North America?

A	Alaska
B	Mexico
C	the Pacific Ocean
D	Canada

Question #9

Question #9

On what kind of map can we find physical features such as lakes, rivers and mountains?

A	a map of the gymnasium
B	a map of cities
C	a political map
D	a physical map

Question #10

Choose the feature that would be found on a political map.

A	Cumberland Gap
B	Nashville, TN
C	Chickamauga Historical Park
D	Norris Dam

Question #11

What text feature is found on both physical and political maps?

A	place names
B	campsites
C	capitol buildings
D	gulf coast highways

Question #12

There are _____ cardinal directions on a compass rose.

A	ten
B	five
C	four
D	three

Question #13

Which direction would you drive to travel on a road from Nashville to Memphis?

A south and west

B north and west

C south

D east

Question #14

What kind of tool might be best to plan a trip around the world?

A notebook

B a globe

C map

D compass

Question #15

How are some cities marked on a map?

A	Some cities are shown with arrows.
B	Some cities are marked with tents.
C	Some cities are marked with trees.
D	Some cities are shown using dots.