The ideas and beliefs of a political party

A political philosophy based on tradition

A person who believes on free will and is against state involvement

To make changes through laws and rules

To be interesting

To appeal A libertarian To regulate

An ideology Conservatism