

Match each right with the corresponding definition.

Right to welfare

- You have the right to speak freely and to be listened to, because we all like to communicate and interact with other people.

Right to health

- Children have the right to receive medical care.

Right to education

- You have the right to rest, play and participate in cultural, sporting and artistic activities.

Right to play

- . Children have the right to live in a clean and safe home, to have food and clothing. You also have the right to live in a safe environment.

Right to express yourself and develop social skills

- Children have the right to receive a good education. Teachers and classmates should respect you and help you develop your knowledge, personality, and freedom.

Teacher Malo

