

LISTENING

Flying

Karen just arrived at JFK airport. She wants to get to Midtown but doesn't know how to get there. She asks for directions at the information desk. Listen to the dialogue and complete the gaps.

Karen: Hello.

Information Assistant: Hi, how can I help you?

Karen: How do I get to Midtown Manhattan?

Information Assistant: Well, there are a few _____ There's the Airport Express bus, the AirTrain, then subway, or a taxi.

Karen: Okay, where does the bus leave _____?

Information Assistant: Just go out through the _____ exit and turn left. The bus stops are on the other _____ of the road. A lot of these buses go to the Grand Central Terminal.

Karen: Okay, and what about the train?

Information Assistant: Oh, there's a train to Penn Station _____ 8 minutes.

Karen: And where can I get on the train?

Information Assistant: Can you see the _____ over there? Just follow those signs, it's not far from there.

Karen: How much is a ticket?

Information Assistant: I think it's about $7.75.

Karen: And how much is the bus?

Information Assistant: Oh, the bus is only $5.

Karen: But is the train faster?

Information Assistant: Yes. It's probably 30 minutes faster than the bus. And it usually takes _____ an hour but it _____ on the traffic.

Karen: Okay, thank you very _____ I think I will take the bus. Bye.

Information Assistant: My _____. Enjoy your stay. Bye.