

Stonehenge

1. Read the text and find new words on the dictionary.

Stonehenge is one of the world's most impressive prehistoric monuments. It dates to the 3100bc.

The monument is situated in England, but its stones were taken from wales. They are called "bluestones".

The monument is a mystery because nobody knows, for sure, how the stones were taken from England.

2. Reading comprehension: choose TRUE or FALSE.

The monument is in the U.K.	TRUE	FALSE
Stonehenge is a prehistoric monument.	TRUE	FALSE
The stones of the monument are called "bluestones".	TRUE	FALSE
The monument is a mystery because it is very big.	TRUE	FALSE
The stones of the monument are from Bs. As.	TRUE	FALSE
Wales is a Kingdom of the U.K.	TRUE	FALSE