Readers' Corner - What Do You Think?

Senet

My friends and I play a board game* called Senet. We love playing Senet because it makes you think and it is full of surprises.

Senet is the oldest board game in the world. Many Senet boards were found in old Egyptian tombs so we know that the Egyptians played Senet 5,000 years ago. It is hard to believe that we still enjoy the same game today!

Senet is a great board game – you will enjoy playing it with your friends. There is only one problem – it is a game for just two players. That's why I'm giving it four out of five stars.

Do you want to learn more about the game?

You can find more information about the game on the Internet.

Tell Me is a website for teenagers around the world. We asked our readers to tell us about birthdays in their country. Here are two email messages that we received.

From:	Chong <chong@china.cn>

Subject:	Birthdays around the world

Hi everyone,

In my country, we have a special birthday lunch with our grandparents, aunts and uncles. At lunch, we eat long noodles for a long life and for good luck.

In China, children get money or presents for their birthday. It's bad luck to give someone a clock or a watch for his or her birthday. My family always gives me money. Tomorrow is my birthday and I know what I'm going to buy!

Hello everyone,

Birthdays are special for kids in Sweden. I love birthdays because I can stay in bed in the morning. In Sweden, parents bring kids breakfast in bed. They usually make pancakes for breakfast. Then the family gives us presents. It's fun to open them in bed.

Last year, our neighbor made a cake for my birthday. Our birthday cakes have lots of fruit and cream on the top – delicious!

We also put the Swedish flag on the roof of the house. This means that someone in the house has a birthday.
