I often find _____ thinking about when we had face to face classes.

At that time _____ was able to interact with my teachers and friends in significant ways. For example, _____ friends could give _____ a hug or a pat on the back when _____ needed reassurance and _____ felt really awesome. Now, _____ only communicate over the phone or on social media but things are just not the same. I remember being told a secret directly in the ear by my friends. The tickle of _____ excited breath against my helix made _____ feel included because _____ was a part of the group. _____ often exchanged nonverbal gestures which _____ else could understand. Only _____ of us in _____ little group knew what _____ meant.

There is just something about being in the classroom in the presence of a teacher, especially _____ that I liked. My favourite was _____ English teacher, Miss Jacobs. _____ made the class come alive with _____ stories, poems and presentations. _____ lessons were very interesting as _____ always contained some element of mystery which made _____ curious and elated to solve. Another class I miss is _____ music class. _____ could listen to the children playing all day even when _____ not quite on key. ____ music class was always filled with excitement and when _____ school choir song ____ took my breath away! I certainly hope things will be returning to normalcy soon.
