

Vocabulary

- 1 Read the descriptions of five items of clothing. Do you know what each one is? Find the names for them in the circles below.

1 The name of this item of clothing means 'thing to wear' in Japanese. It is worn by men, women and children. It has long, wide sleeves. It doesn't have buttons or a zip. You wrap it around your body, and tie it with a sash.

2 The word comes from Persian and means 'leg garment'. Originally they were loose trousers, tied at the waist. Today, they are worn all over the world, usually to sleep in.

3 It's a hat which comes from Mexico. You wear it to protect you from the sun. The word comes from the Spanish for 'shade' or 'shadow'.

4 This word comes from the Sanskrit word meaning 'to tie'. It's a large colourful handkerchief which is worn on the head or around the neck.

5 This word also comes from Sanskrit and means 'strip of cloth'. It's a long piece of material which is wrapped around the body. It's worn by women and girls in countries like India.

kimono

sari

T-shirt

sombrero

bandana

pyjamas