

“Introducing myself”

Read the text, and fill the gaps with the correct word.

“Hello there, my _____ is Vivian. I’m 19 _____ old, and I’m from Paris, France. I’m really excited for writing to you, I hope we can be good _____ !

Let me tell you a little bit about my life. My _____ is very small, I’m the only child! That means I don’t have any siblings. However, my _____ were very caring and I never felt alone. Now, I’m _____ at university, I will be a lawyer someday. This is my first _____ so I’m still getting _____ to it. It’s kind of hard. I don’t have many _____, but I’m really interested in literature. My _____ book is “Sherlock Holmes”, I _____ mysteries! They keep awake thinking how to solve the case.

Well... I think it’s enough about me. Tell me about you now! How is your family? What are you studying? What do you like? I’ll be waiting for your answer.

Lots of love, Vivian”.

Taking the text as a model, answer to Vivian introducing yourself. Remember to use the vocabulary seen. You can guide your writing using the following headings:

- Personal information
(name, nationality, age, birthday).
- Family.
- Education.
- Hobbies.