

Interview with Lois Lowry (The Giver)

1. Complete the following ideas from the interview, with only ONE word.

The book was published in

Comparing to her other books, she feels this one is

She hasliked science fiction.

The book is set in a time.

For her, writing this book, was to writefiction.

The story is different from our contemporary lives because it has a complicated set of.....

2. Choose the correct alternative to answer or complete the following ideas.

- a) Why were the rules designed?
 - 1- To keep population controlled.
 - 2- To make their world comfortable and safe.

- b) In "The Giver" there is no discrimination because....
 - 1- people are good.

2- people is the same color.

c) There is no crime because....

1- there is no money.

2- there are many rules.

d) Along the book, readers may realize that....

1- it is such a great place to live.

2- it isn't such a great place to live.

e) This almost 13 year-old boy has set out to...

1- save the baby.

2- change the world.

f) There were times when it was demanded that the book....

1- was removed from schools.

2- assigned to schools.

