Word Building Activity

What type of words are they? Drag and drop the words in the correct category.

1. Programming is the process of writing a program using a computer language.

2. A computer program is a set of instructions that tells the computer how to do a specific task.

3. Most computer programmers make a plan of the program before they write it.

4. A programmable keyboard allows the user to configure the layout and meaning of the keys.

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE
	program

5. Programs written in a high-level language require compilation, that is, translation into machine code, the language understood by the processor.

6. A source program is converted into machine code by software called a compiler.

7. Programmers usually compile their programs to generate an object program and diagnose possible errors.

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE
		compilable

8. Any error or malfunction of a computer program is known as a bug.

9. A debugger is a program used to test and debug other programs.

10. The process of going through the code to identify the cause of errors and fixing them is called debugging.

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE
		debuggable

11. A coder is a person who writes code for computer programs.

12. Coding is the translation of natural language into machine commands.

13. Something is considered codable when it is capable of being coded.

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE
	code

14. This approach presents significant challenges for building deployable code.

15. Software deployment is all of the activities that make a software system available for use.

16. To deploy means to install, test and implement a computer system or application.

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE