Read the sentences on the left column.

① What do they have in common?
② Match each sentence to its corresponding use.

| SENTENCES | USES |
|---|---|
| 1 I'm going out tonight. | A At a moment in the past |
| 2 The world is getting warmer. | B During this period of time |
| 3 What are you doing with that pencil? | C Something changing in the past |
| 4 We're having great time in Santorini. | D In the future |
| 5 100 years ago, many changes were taking place because of new inventions. | E Events continuing up to a particular moment in the present and stopping just before it |
| 6 While he was at university, he was living with his aunt. | F Future in the past |
| 7 At 3 o'clock I was waiting for the bus. | G At the moment |
| 8 I was meeting Susy at 8 o'clock that evening. | H Something changing |
| 9 I'm tired because I've been running. | I Temporary situation in the past |
| 10 We were annoyed because the hotel manager had been lying to us. | J Events continuing up to a particular moment in the past and stopping just before it |

③ Can you identify the tenses used in each sentence?
④ Now copy and complete this chart with information about the tenses.

| TENSE | USE | FORM (AFFIRMATIVE, NEGATIVE, INTERROGATIVE) | WRITE YOUR OWN EXAMPLE FOR EACH USE |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |