

Read the sentences on the left column.

- ① What do they have in common?
- ② Match each sentence to its corresponding use.

SENTENCES

- 1 I'm going out tonight.
- 2 The world is getting warmer.
- 3 What are you doing with that pencil?
- 4 We're having great time in Santorini.
- 5 100 years ago, many changes were taking place because of new inventions.
- 6 While he was at university, he was living with his aunt.
- 7 At 3 o'clock I was waiting for the bus.
- 8 I was meeting Susy at 8 o'clock that evening.
- 9 I'm tired because I've been running.
- 10 We were annoyed because the hotel manager had been lying to us.

- ③ Can you identify the tenses used in each sentence?
- ④ Now copy and complete this chart with information about the tenses.

USES

- A At a moment in the past
- B During this period of time
- C Something changing in the past
- D In the future
- E Events continuing up to a particular moment in the present and stopping just before it
- F Future in the past
- G At the moment
- H Something changing
- I Temporary situation in the past
- J Events continuing up to a particular moment in the past and stopping just before it

TENSE	USE	FORM (AFFIRMATIVE, NEGATIVE, INTERROGATIVE)	WRITE YOUR OWN EXAMPLE FOR EACH USE