

Gulliver's Travel Year 5
Chapter 4: Land of Giants

Back in England, Gulliver makes a living by exhibiting his tiny animals from _____. The following year, he sets sail with _____ and his crew to explore the great island for fresh water. Upon their journey on these islands, they are warned about the _____. Nevertheless they decide to explore one of the islands.

Left behind by the others on the island, Gulliver encounters giants in the _____. One of the giants picks him up and the terrified Gulliver begs for his life. The giant brings Gulliver to his master who then invites him for a meal.

At the master giant's home, Gulliver meets his daughter, _____. She takes care of him and called him _____. He performs to the public and becomes the source of income for the family.

One day, the _____ hears about Gulliver and invites him to stay at her palace. Gulliver is sold to the Queen with the condition that Glumdalclitch remains as his _____. In his every encounter with danger, Glumdalclitch is always there to rescue him.