

Gulliver's Travel Year 5
Chapter 5: A Wild Escape

One day, Gulliver and Glumdalclitch travel to the _____ with the King and Queen. Gulliver travels in a _____ which is also his home. With Glumdalclitch's permission, a royal servant takes him for a walk along the shore. He then realizes his longing to see his own country.

After a while, he returns to take a _____ inside his travelling closet when suddenly the closet is carried away by a_____. The bird drops the closet into the sea. Stranded at sea, he starts shouting loudly for rescue.

Fortunately, some _____hear him and rescue him from the sea. They do not believe his adventures in the land of the _____ until they see the gigantic objects that he has in his cabinet. He returns safely to _____ and heeds his family and friends' request to stop sailing anymore.