Super Safari

When we compare three or more things we generally add "-est" to the adjective preceded by "the" to make the superlative form.

The whale is the biggest animal in the world.

Task 1. Write the superlative using "-est" form and the word "the".

1 The rabbit was_____ (small) animal we saw.

2 The giraffe was _____ (tall) animal we saw.

3 The cheetah was _____ (fast) animal we saw.

4 The turtle was _____(slow) animal we saw.

Task 2. When an adjective has a CVC formation, we double the final consonant. (i.e. fat – fattest)

1 The elephant was _____ (big) animal we saw.

2 The hippo was _____(fat) animal we saw.

3 A fish was _____ (wet) animal we saw.

4 A worm was _____(slim) animal we saw.

Task 3. When some adjectives end in "-y" we change the "y" to "I". (i.e. happy – happiest)

1 The butterfly was _____ (pretty) animal we saw.

2 The parrot was _____ (noisy) animal we saw.

3 The elephant was _____(heavy) animal we saw.

4 The monkey was _____ (silly) animal we saw.

5 The hyena was _____ (deadly) animal we saw.

Task 4. Some adjectives, particularly longer ones, use "the most". (the most interesting)

The gazelle was _____(beautiful) animal we saw.

The lion was _____ (dangerous) animal we saw.

The cheetah was _____(intelligent) animal we saw.

The wildebeest was _____(interesting) animal we saw.

The jackal was _____ (vicious) animal we saw.

