

1

There were 5 witches on broomsticks, then 4 more witches came. How many witches were there altogether?

4

There were 9 spiders spinning webs and 5 spiders eating flies. How many spiders were there in all?

5

If there were 2 mummies sleeping and 8 mummies walking around, what is the sum?

8

There were 6 ghosts telling jokes and there were 3 jokes that were listening. What is the total number of ghosts?

6

There were 9 black cats sitting in a tree and 4 black cats on the ground. How many more cats were in the tree than on the ground?

3

When we went trick-or-treating we brought home 13 pieces of bubble gum and 8 candy bars. What is the difference of bubble gum and candy bars?

7

10 bats were flying at night and 9 decided to go hang in a tree. How many bats were left flying?

2

We saw 10 kids dressed up as pirates and 6 kids dressed up as princesses. How many less kids were dressed up as princesses than pirates?