

Uncharted Land

You are the first to discover this uncharted territory. Describe your reaction to this beautiful land. Describe the details of what you find there. How will you describe this land to the people waiting back home?