

SCIENCE

Fungi

Read each statement carefully. On the line, write true if the statement is true and false if it is false.

1. Fungi are animal-like. _____
2. Fungi can make their own food. _____
3. Mold and mildew are kinds of fungi. _____
4. Mold grows from spores. _____
5. Yeast grows on bread. _____
6. Mildew grows on damp cloth and leather. _____
7. All fungi are harmful. _____
8. A fungus cell has a nucleus. _____
9. Mushrooms are not fungi. _____
10. Ringworm is caused by a fungus. _____

How is this pizza connected to 3 kinds of fungi?

11. _____ was used to make the dough.
12. _____ are used a topping.
13. After a while _____ will grow on any portion that is left.

Fungi can be helpful and harmful. Write harmful or helpful beside each statement that describes a fungus.

14. It causes ringworm _____

15. It is used in soups and salads. _____

16. It is used to make cheese and beer. _____

17. It causes athlete's foot. _____

18. It is used to make penicillin. _____

19. Kevin went for a walk in the forest. He found some mushrooms. Should he eat them. Why or why not?

