

Famous Detectives

Miss Marple

Miss Jane Marple is a famous character of Agatha Christie's novels. She has white hair, and blue eyes. She comes from the United Kingdom and lives at St Mary Mead. She lives a nice life in her small village. She enjoys gardening, observing people. She has a high knowledge of men's characteristics and she also uses

Sherlock Holmes

Sherlock Holmes was created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. He is said to be born in 1854. He is surely one of the most famous detectives and is a classic character. He uses logical reasoning and the laws of science. He is very intelligent.

Columbo

Columbo is a homicide detective with the L.A. Police Department in an American TV series. He was created by William Link and Richard Levinson, and he first appeared in 1968. Columbo is an Italian American who is always underestimated by his colleagues and enemies. He is known for his unnecessarily detailed speech and irritating asides. He has highly observant eyes, so he

Nancy Drew

She is the most famous child detective. Nancy Drew first appeared in 1930, in a novel written by Carolyn Keene. Over 80 million copies of her books have been sold. She is smart, independent, fearless. She is and has been a role model for many women

Hercule Poirot

Hercule Poirot is one of Agatha Christie's most famous detectives. He first appeared in 1920. He has also been portrayed in films, television and radio by many famous actors. Poirot is a Belgian detective with a moustache and a pocket watch.

Name	Job	Date of creation	Creator	Characteristics