

Vocabulary

1 Match the adjectives to the speakers' feelings.

- | | | | | | | | |
|----------|--------------------------|--------|--------------------------|--------|--------------------------|---------|--------------------------|
| puzzled | <input type="checkbox"/> | sad | <input type="checkbox"/> | happy | <input type="checkbox"/> | anxious | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| thrilled | <input type="checkbox"/> | scared | <input type="checkbox"/> | amazed | <input type="checkbox"/> | annoyed | <input type="checkbox"/> |

2 Fill in the correct verb from the list.

howling, screeching, falling, barking, ticking, wailing, dripping, rumbling, knocking

- I wasn't at all sleepy, so I lay in bed listening to the sound of my alarm clock
- The big black dog was noisily in the garden.
- I was finding it difficult to study and the sound of the tap wasn't making it any easier.
- The police car chased after the bank robbers with its siren
- She sat by the window watching the rain from the grey clouds.
- John lay in bed listening to the wind outside.
- The child was so quiet that no one heard her at the front door.
- They could hear the thunder above them as they ran towards the old empty house.
- Jackie was deep in thought as she crossed the street when suddenly she heard the sound of car brakes

3 Fill in the correct verb from the list.

collected, watering, radioed, changed, landed, hanging, staring, cancel

- Carla her clothes as soon as she got home.
- We had to our trip because of the accident.
- He was the plants in his garden when he noticed something strange.
- She was just about to leave, when she looked up and saw the gi out the window.