

1. I love Chinese food because it [considers / creates / combines] sweet with sour tastes.
2. We were given a [comment / tutorial / script] on how to use the new computer program.
3. You should be [currently / responsible / creative] for your actions.
4. Steve is going to [complain / edit / combine] to the manager.
5. Our teacher made [combinations / comments / complaints] on our essays.
6. [Wish / Edit / Mood] me luck!
7. When I was working as a waiter in Paris, I came [onto / into / in] contact with people from around the world.
8. First, you have to [household / blend / mood] the milk with the eggs.
9. Lia's [relatives / influence / followers] came to her 15th birthday celebration.
10. Tim is an honest, kind and caring person and has many other good personality [forms / traits / uploads] .