

Watch the video and complete with the missing information:

dashed
wicked
awful
admirable
gigantic cordial
wonderful
examined
inspected
splendid
amazing
enormous
marvelous
pleasant
massive frightened
unpleasant
microscopic
exceptional
delighted
carful
crept
paraded
tremendous enormous
miserable
minuscule
enjoyable
marched
glided
dreadful
microscopic
exceptional
strolled
lovely
printed petite
terrified
petite
such as:
adjectives
courteous
chuckled
*

A. Adjectives come before _____ but after _____ such as:

*

*

*

B. Though it is unlikely that you'll order so many adjectives for one noun, the order goes:

_____, _____, _____
_____, _____, _____

Though there are other types of adjectives which do not feature in this list, such as:
adjectives _____

C. What is Will wearing? A _____ suit.

D. What are the extreme, or non-gradable, version of the following adjectives?

* tasty:

* interesting:

* handsome:

E. _____ adjectives can be made more or less using words like
' _____ ' or ' _____ '.

_____ adjectives, however, are too strong. You cannot be 'a bit exhausted'. In order to modify them, we need a stronger adverb such as

' _____ ', ' _____ ' or
' _____ '.