Name: _____ Date: _____

Click here to read and listen to the story of the word fireworks

Listen to the prompt and write it

The _____ also _____ a _____ _____ of _____ _____, or _____ _____.

For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in _____ with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud _____ and calls the two lawyers _____. He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom."

liveworksheets.com

Drag and drop synonyms

The expression also means a great show of noisy anger, or something exciting. For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in arguing with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud argument and calls the two lawyers forward. He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom." expression	loud	something	implies means	indignation	exciting	display great	anything	arguing	ahead show	disputing	argument	astonishing noisy	demanding	forward	wording anger	contention

liveworksheets.com