

Name: _____

Date: _____

Click here to read and listen to the story of the word fireworks

Listen to the prompt and write it

The  also  a of  , or  .

For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in  with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud and calls the two lawyers . He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom."

Drag and drop synonyms

The expression also means a great show of noisy anger, or something exciting. For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in arguing with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud argument and calls the two lawyers forward. He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom."

expression	loud	something	implies means	indignation	exciting	display great	anything	arguing	ahead show	disputing	argument	astonishing noisy	demanding	forward	wording anger	contention		