

Name: _____

Date: _____

Click here to read and listen to the story of the word fireworks

Listen to the prompt and write it

The  also  a
of  , or  .

For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in  with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud and calls the two lawyers  . He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom."

Drag and drop synonyms

The expression also means a great show of noisy anger, or something exciting. For example, a defense lawyer in a court trial may become very emotional in arguing with the government lawyer about evidence affecting the accused. The judge finally stops the loud argument and calls the two lawyers forward. He tells them, "I want no more of these fireworks in my courtroom."

expression

loud

something

implies

means

indignation

exciting

display

great

anything

arguing

ahead

show

disputing

argument

astonishing

noisy

demanding

forward

wording

anger

contention