

Halloween

was / were / wasn't / weren't

It Halloween night. It dark and cold. Everybody at home. But some children in the street. They excited and happy. At the end of the street there a house. It a haunted house. The children decided to go there. it a good idea? The house very old. People too scared to go there. There so many strange stories about the place. But the kids bold and brave. One boy, who the leader of the group, went inside. The other kids just behind him. The house a scary place. There spiderwebs everywhere. And suddenly they heard a noise. They so scared they couldn't move. One girl screamed. Something jumped at her. It so dark. It a big black cat. The kids bold and brave any more. They wanted to get out. It almost midnight and the house suddenly full of strange noises. It a funny adventure any more. 'Help', somebody shouted.