

All Hallows' Eve vs Halloween

Fill in the missing letters to complete the sentences. Use the Halloween vocabulary in different context:

We have months of online learning ahead of us and that thought is just s _____ y.

Lisa is the most d _____ s woman you'll ever see.

Apparently, between rush hour, this town is like a g _____ n.

“The w _____ r, somebody had once whispered to her, was a special moment in the middle of the night when every child and every grown-up was in a deep deep sleep, and all the dark things came out from hiding and had the world all to themselves.” (Roald Dahl, author of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory)

Accusing people of something they hadn't done is called w _____ t.

He was so terrified, he was screaming and running like a b _____ l.

‘I _____ d’ is the most famous true crime novel of all time and one of the first non-fiction novels ever written. The author's name was Truman Capote.

You went as w _____ t when you heard Amy's voice on the speakerphone.

It's late. I'm about ready to t _____ n.

‘Jealousy is a g _____ r’, somebody said.