

Learning objective: I can use checklist to plan a newspaper report.

Draw a line from the feature to the box with the correct explanation as to why it is there.

Features of a Newspaper:

headline	To tell you who wrote the article.
main paragraph	To tell you the name of the paper.
name of newspaper	To sum up the whole article or tell you what might happen next.
picture	To give more detailed information in one section.
conclusion	To give you more information in a visual way.
introductory paragraph	To give you a little more information about what the headline means.
caption	To give you some basic information about the story and entice you to read on.
byline	To explain what is happening in the picture.
sub-headline	To grab your attention and make you want to read the article.