MORE IDIOMS

Match the idioms with their meaning (write the numbers)

1. You should take a side in the argument.

2. Why don't you speak?

3. It was quite unexpected.

4. You can't have two good things at the same time.

5. You are always attentive and quick to take action.

6. You said exactly the right thing.

7. You'll have an advantage if you do something immediately.

8. I heard it from a reliable source.

You hit the nail on the head!

Has the cat got your tongue?

I got it straight from the horse's mouth.

The early bird catches the worm.

Stop sitting on the fence!

You can't have your cake and eat it too!

It happened out of the blue!

You are always on the ball!

liveworksheets.com