ADVERBS OF MANNER

Adverbs of manner describe how things happen.

They are usually formed by adding –ly at the end of the adjectives.

Sometimes there are changes in spelling:
easy → easily gentle → gently

If the adjective ends in –ly we use the phrase in a … way:
friendly → in a friendly way
silly → in a silly way

Some adverbs have the same form as the adjective:
hard late fast early much little straight

EXERCISE: Fill in the Banks using the adverbs of manner from the following adjectives:

QUIET UNFAIR SILLY
LOUD FAST PATIENT
EASY HARD
CORRECT LATE
EARLY FRIENDLY

Please, could you speak _____.

Samuel answered all the questions _____.

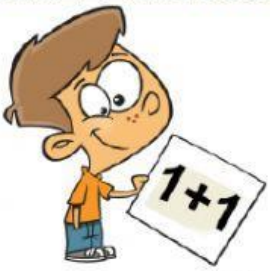

The man was playing _____.

Andrew has been working very _____.

Mr. Harrison arrived _____.

The problem could be solved very _____.

The candidates were not debating _____

He was driving too _____.

The man was walking _____.

My brother was behaving _____.

My mother waited _____.

My uncle got up very _____.

liveworksheets.com