

too, enough

The library closes at 6 p.m. Hurry up we have too little time to check out some books.
The library closes at 6 p.m. Hurry up we don't have _____ to check out some books.

M12/1

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

My brother was too young to go down the slide in the waterpark.
My brother wasn't _____ to go down the slide in the waterpark.

M12/2

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

I can't afford to buy an electric scooter because it isn't cheap enough.
I can't afford to buy an electric scooter because it is _____.

M12/3

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

I am too young to look after my younger sister.
I am not _____ to look after my younger sister.

M12/4

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

My mobile phone is too old to play Kahoot.
My mobile phone isn't _____ to play Kahoot.

M12/5

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

The water in the sea isn't warm enough to swim.
The water in the sea is _____ to swim.

M12/6

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

There wasn't enough snow to ski during our winter holiday.
There was _____ snow to ski during our winter holiday.

M12/7

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

The rolls weren't fresh enough to make sandwiches.
The rolls _____ to make sandwiches.

M12/8

teachwithme.pl

too, enough

Your knife is too blunt to chop vegetables.
Your knife isn't _____ to chop vegetables.

M12/9

teachwithme.pl