

LET'S SEE HOW MUCH YOU REMEMBER ABOUT 'THE MAGIC FINGER.'

1. Read the sentences and choose T (true) or F (false). Correct the false sentences.

- a. The girl turned her teacher into a dog. T / F

- b. The girl can change people when she gets cross and sees red. T / F

- c. The Greggs had two daughters. T / F

- d. The Greggs were the girl's cousins. T / F

- e. The Greggs boys killed sixteen fish. T / F

- f. Mr. Gregg woke up with a duck beak instead of nose. T / F

- g. Four big ducks moved into Gregg's house. T / F

- h. The four big ducks had human heads. T / F

- i. The Greggs slept in their chicken house. T / F

- j. Mr. Gregg changed his name into Mr. Egg. T / F

2. Read and choose the right option. BE CAREFUL! Sometimes, more than one option is possible.

- a. The girl has...
 - a funny power.
 - a dangerous power.
 - a strange power.
- b. She uses the magic finger when she is...
 - cross and she sees red.
 - happy and sees red.
 - sad and sees black.
 - angry.
- c. Once, she used the magic finger on her...
 - brother and sister.
 - parents.
 - teacher.
 - friends.

d. With the magic finger, she gave her teacher...

- some whiskers.
- a mouse tail.
- a cat tail.
- a cat tail, whiskers and pointy ears.

e. Why did she use the magic finger on her neighbours?

- Because they went haunting and she was jealous.
- Because they laughed when she shouted.
- Because they went hunting and she can't stand that.
- Because she thinks it's wrong to kill animals just for fun.

f. What happened the next morning to the Greggs?

- They didn't have their hands and arms anymore.
- They didn't have their feet anymore.
- They had wings.
- They had a long beak.