It's Halloween Tonight

A long time / light ago, on Halloween night,
Under the glow of the full moon's light,
A group of children, out to trick or freak / treat,
Find themselves locked out of the house of sweets
The three keys that will open the door,
Were stolen by creatures forever / never seen here before,
A witch, a vampire, and skeleton / monster pirates,
Someone must be brave enough to go out and find them
Run Run Run,
Don't let them get you,
When the blue / moon is bright,
It's Halloween tonight
Run Run Run,
Before they get you,
When the moon is bright,
It's Halloween fight / tonight
When every living thing,
Is hiding in the silent night,
You hear a cry / ghost
Her eyes are fire flames,
But her heart is cold as rice / ice,
Hear my advice
(Or you'll pay the price)

Smelly robe, and pointy bat / hat

Greenish skin, and spooky cat

Chanting spells in a high pitch

Holy Cow! She's a wizard / witch!

Run Run Run,

Don't let them get you,

When the sun / moon is bright,

It's Halloween tonight

Run Run Run,

Before they get you,

When the moon is bright / light,

It's Halloween tonight

Though you can barely see,

Just for a second / moment you believe,

There's something in the air

In the midnight hour,

He comes to trail you in disguise,

Open your mouth / eyes

(He's got appetite)

Pale as the moon, and quick as a vampire / bat

Fangs so long, they could poke through 10 cats / hats

He hides in the shadows like a big tarantula

Run for you life! It's Skeleton / Count Dracula!

Run Run Run,

Don't let them get you,

When the moon is bright,

It's Halloween / magazine tonight

Run Run Run,

Before they get you,

When the moon is bright,

It's Halloween tonight

The skeletons, the skeletons / tombstones (repeat)

Their bones can shake like gelatin (repeat)

And if you hear a clickty-clack (repeat)

You'd better run, and don't go / turn out / back! (repeat)

Run Run Run,

Don't let them get you,

When the moon is bright,

It's Halloween tonight

Run Run Run,

Before they get you,

When the moon is bright,

It's Halloween today / tonight
