Vocabulary – House & furniture

1 Match the texts with the pictures (A-E). There is one extra picture.

This week we ask a group of teenagers: 'Where do you have breakfast?' Here are some of their answers.

'There's never any time before school to sit down and have a big breakfast. I usually sit at the bottom of the stairs and I have some biscuits.' Angela, 13

(1) ☐ D

'In my house, we always have breakfast together in the kitchen. My mum usually puts some flowers from our garden on the table.' Noelia, 12

(2) ☐

'On the sofa in the living room, of course! If there aren't any cartoons on TV, I usually watch sports.' Harun, 12

(3) ☐

'Don't tell my mum but I sometimes have breakfast in my bedroom. I love hot chocolate. If there isn't any hot chocolate left, then I have some orange juice.' Victor, 14

(4) ☐

Grammar – There is / are, a / an, some & any

- 1 Work in pairs. Read the text message conversation between Wendi and her grandma. Underline the things you need to make an omelette.

Grandma, I want to make an omelette. How many eggs do I need? And how much oil?

April 17, 09.10

I always use a lot of eggs, a little oil and a little salt. I often fry a few potatoes too.

April 17, 09.26

Thanks! 😊

April 17, 09.28

- 2 Read the conversation in Exercise 1 again. Complete the rules with countable or uncountable.

- 1 We use (How) many and a few with (1) nouns.
- 2 We use (How) much and a little with (2) nouns.
- 3 We use a lot of with both (3) and (4) nouns.

- 3 Choose the correct words to complete the text.

Breakfast – the most important meal of the day

How (1) many / much food do you eat between your evening meal and breakfast the next day? The answer is probably a (2) little / few or perhaps none. How (3) many / much days a week do you miss breakfast? Don't! A good breakfast gives your body important food for the day. Do you usually have a (4) little / few biscuits and a (5) little / lot milk like (6) many / much young people? Once again, don't! Start your day well by eating a (7) little / few fruit and some cereal. How (8) many / much time do you usually spend with your family? Breakfast is a great moment to sit down together in the kitchen and talk.

Exam tip >

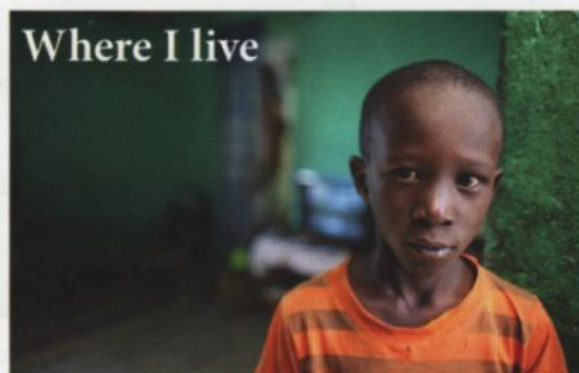

Read the whole sentence carefully to decide if the sentence is positive or negative and if the noun is countable or uncountable, singular or plural.
