

ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY

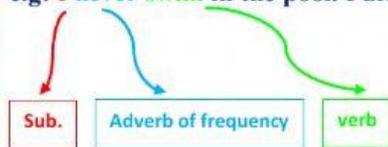

We use adverbs of frequency with the present simple to indicate how often we do things. They answer the question "How often?" These adverbs are:

1	always	100%	She always goes to school by bus.
2	usually	90%	They usually go to the gym.
3	often	70%	I often study in my room.
4	sometimes	50%	We sometimes eat junk food.
5	never	0%	I never go to cinema. I don't like it.

In a sentence, we place these adverbs before the verb:

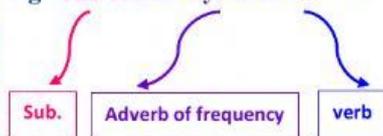

* (They/We/You/I) + (usually, sometimes, always, often and never.) +V1

e.g: I never swim in the pool. I afraid of doing that.

* (She/He/It) + (usually, sometimes, always, often and never.) +V (s/es) e.g: The cat always drinks milk.

In a sentence with verb to be, we place these adverbs after the verb to be:

* (They/we/you) + verb to be (are) + (usually, sometimes, always, often and never.)

* (I) + verb to be (am) + (usually, sometimes, always, often and never.)

e.g: There are always lots of people in the city centre on Saturday nights.

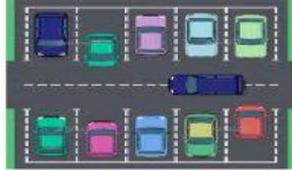

Verb to be

Adverb of frequency

* (she/he/it) + verb to be (is) + (usually, sometimes, always, often and never.)

e.g: It is often difficult to find a place to park.

Verb to be

Adverb of frequency

How often

*How often is used to ask question about the frequency of an activity. (*Note: You can see the previous worksheet about making questions in the simple present tense).

Q: How often do you go to the cinema?

A: I often go to cinema.

Q: How often does Omar play computer games?

A: He usually plays computer games.

Notice that we use adverbs of frequency to answer the question of "How often?" Also, the answer is in the present simple tense.
