

Retain all letters when adding a suffix

All letters are usually retained when adding a suffix.

example:

ski

+ ing =

skiing

The man is skiing down the slope.

Write these words, adding the suffix "ing"

walk _____ paint _____

sing _____ cook _____

jump _____ help _____

think _____ go _____

read _____ fall _____

I am _____.

Write these words, adding the suffix "ed"

camp _____ jump _____

bark _____ stamp _____

dust _____ sew _____

rain _____ paint _____

cook _____ help _____

We _____.

Circle the correct word

She is (painted / painting) a picture of some flowers.

The boy (stamping / stamped) his feet in the sand.

My brother was (helping / helped) our father in the garden.

Dad (cooking / cooked) the food on the campfire.

The little girl is (jumping / jumped) across the creek.

Our dog (barked / barking) at the man when he walked near the gate.

My sister is very good at (sewed / sewing).

He (skiing / skied) quickly across the ski field.

My mother is (dusted / dusting) the furniture.

