

What makes these moments special for these people?

1

2

You have one minute

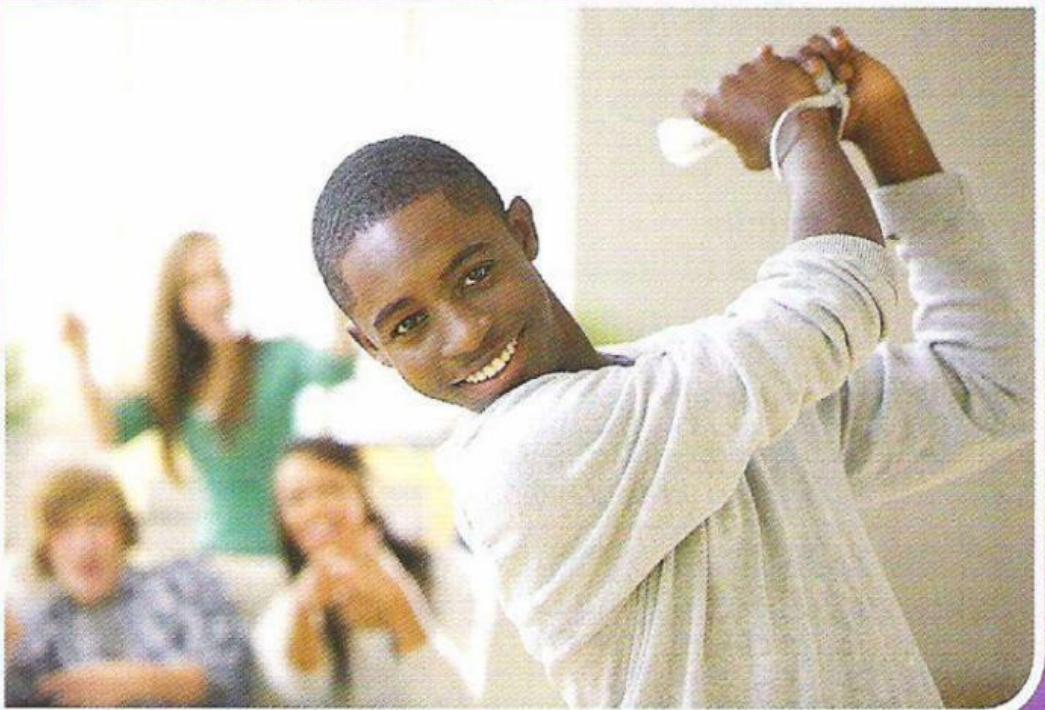

What do you think about these two learning environments?

You have one minute

What do the people enjoy about doing these different activities?

Speaking Part 2

Student A: These pictures show different ways of spending December 25th, Christmas day. I'd like you to compare and contrast the pictures and say how you think the people in the photos are feeling and why.

Student B: How do you usually spend the Christmas day?

---

Speaking Part 2

Student B: These pictures show different ways of spending New Year's Eve. I'd like you to compare and contrast the pictures and say how you like to spend New Year's Eve.

Student A: How do you spend New Year's Eve?

How can the people benefit from spending their free time doing these different activities?

STUDENT A - Why do people enjoy spending time in these places?

How important is it to help people in these situations?

Here are some "wh" questions to help you when thinking about how to compare these photographs and answer the question.

1. Who are the people in the photos? What is the problem?
2. What is the occupation of the people helping?
3. Where is the situation happening?
4. Why do the people need help?
5. How well do the people in the photos know each other?
6. How might the person needing help be feeling?
7. How quickly will the people be helped?