TOGETHER WE LIVE

Gopanna returned home tired and sat in the varandah.

'Sita! ... Sita!... bring me a glass of water,' he called his wife.

Laxmi, his daughter searched for water and found all the vessels empty.

'There is no water Nanna. Amma has gone to bring water from Rajanna's mango garden.'

'Oh, did she go there? It is far away...'

Gopanna leaned against the wall and closed his eyes.

'Look, Nanna, Amma is coming,' shouted Laxmi.

Sita brought a half-filled pot.

'So you have brought little water,' Gopanna asked his wife.

'Yes, it's very hard for me to fetch even this much of water. Thank God! At least we've got half pot today. There was a long queue. There is no guarantee that tomorrow we will get even this much,' said Sita.

'Nowadays life has become miserable.

No rains, no water, no cultivation...

No food ...dry... everything dried up,' said Gopanna sadly.

'What shall we do now? Our cattle also have no food and water. We must do something,' said Sita.

Then Gopanna slowly got up, jerked his towel and walked towards the gram panchayat.
