II. Read the following passage

Gopanna thought, 'My people are too hungry and tired to go any further. If the other towns too are unfriendly, we will wander endlessly. I have to do something,' he said to himself and went to the village head and said, 'We have to do something now. As we have water here, I can prepare Ganji with a magic spell.' The village head agreed.

Gopanna quickly collected four small rocks and placed them near one another in the middle of the town square. The town people peeped out of their windows and found Gopanna working busily.

Gopanna fetched some firewood and threw it into the rocks and lit it. He picked a large pot from the villagers belongings and filled it with three quarters of water. He placed it on the fire. The town people looked curiously.

Fill in the blanks.
