

OUR DISAPPEARING BIOMES

1- Select the correct option.

- a. It gives us oxygen, which we need to live.
- b. It gives us water to drink.
- c. It is good for bees, which help plants to make new plants.
- d. It has plants that may give us new medicines.
- e. It has plants that keep the soil strong.
- f. It gives us water to wash with.

GRASS LAND	TROPICAL RAINFOREST	FRESH WATER

2- Read and write.

Artic	hatches	glides	scenes
-------	---------	--------	--------

- a. The desert snake _____ from an egg.
- b. An eagle often _____ in the sky, searching for animals below.
- c. Some _____ in a tropical rainforest may include sloths in trees.
- d. The _____ fox lives in the tundra along with the polar bear.

3- Choose the correct option.

- a. What do rainforests help take away from us?
 - Oxygen
 - Carbon dioxide
- b. What happens to some farmland soil?
 - It blows away.
 - It washes into rivers.
- c. What happens when people take too many things from biomes?
 - Animals and plants can leave the world forever.
 - Animals and plants grow.