

PHYSICAL DIVISION OF INDIA

- Listen and select the word.

India	Indus
Apple	Alluvium
Deposited	Depend
Foot	Foothills
Himali	Himalayas
Northern	Southern
Fertility	Fertile
Shiwalik	Shiwalika
Greatest	Greater
Middle	Module
Outer	Outmode
Inner	Inning
Annadata	Anamudi
Western	Westman
Godan	Godavari

- Read and say the word.

1. India has six main physical divisions.

1. India has _____main physical divisions.

2. Alluvium deposited on the foothills of the Himalayas have made the Northern Plains very fertile.

2. _____deposited on the foothills of the Himalayas have made the Northern Plains very fertile.

3. Alluvium deposited on the foothills of the Himalayas have made the Northern Plains very fertile.

2. Alluvium deposited on the foothills of the Himalayas have made the _____ Plains very fertile.

4. Shiwalik is also known as the Outer Himalayas.

4. _____ is also known as the Outer Himalayas.

5. The highest point in the Western Ghats is Anamudi.

5. The highest point in the Western Ghats is _____.

6. The Godavari is a seasonal river

6. The _____ is a seasonal river