

Trust

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. What made Kara the dandelion so important to William?
<input type="radio"/> A She was his first friend.
<input type="radio"/> B She was his sister.
<input type="radio"/> C She was his mother.
<input type="radio"/> D She was his first meal. | 2. What promise did the dandelion make to William?
<input type="radio"/> A She would find him a home.
<input type="radio"/> B She would bake him a cake.
<input type="radio"/> C She would send him presents.
<input type="radio"/> D She said she would stay. |
| 3. What did Kara ask William to do for her?
<input type="radio"/> A Find a new home
<input type="radio"/> B Bury her seeds
<input type="radio"/> C Blow her seeds into the skies
<input type="radio"/> D Dig up her roots | 4. What did the William think when the dandelion went to seed?
<input type="radio"/> A He thought she had found another home.
<input type="radio"/> B He thought she had been lying to him.
<input type="radio"/> C He thought she was a fairy.
<input type="radio"/> D He thought she wanted to see the world. |
| 5. What did William confess to the dandelion the following spring?
<input type="radio"/> A He thought she was dead.
<input type="radio"/> B He thought she was ugly.
<input type="radio"/> C He thought she would taste good.
<input type="radio"/> D He thought she was a shrinking violet. | 6. What is one lesson that could be learned from this story?
<input type="radio"/> A Trust is not important to a happy life.
<input type="radio"/> B Trust is never real.
<input type="radio"/> C Learning to trust someone often takes time.
<input type="radio"/> D You must trust everyone |