'Who' is a subject pronoun like 'he', 'she' and 'they'. We use 'who' to ask which person did an action or which person is in a certain state. 'Whom' is an object pronoun like 'him', 'her' and 'us'. 'Whose' is a possessive pronoun like 'his', and 'our'.

A Select the correct option

1 What's the name of the man who/ whom/ whose/ where car you borrowed?

2 A pacifist is a person who/ whom/ whose/ where believes that all wars are wrong.

3 An orphan is a child who/ whom/ whose/ where parents have passed away.

4 The town who/ whom/ whose/ where we spent the holidays was very beautiful.

5 This school is only for children who/ whom/ whose/ where first language is not English.

6 I don't know the n of the woman to who/ whom/ whose/ where I spoke on the phone.

7 A school is a place who/ whom/whose/ where students learn.

WHO

WHOM

WHOSE

THAT

WHICH

B Choose the correct relative pronouns.

1 John and Jessy Brown, that / who got married about a year ago, recently bought a new house.

2 The neighborhood that/ in which they have been living is a somewhat dangerous one.

3 The neighborhood that / who they are moving into is much safer.

4 Their new house, that / which they bought quite cheaply, does need some fixing up.

5 However, they will be receiving some help from their neighbors, most of who / whom they like.

6 The Flitters who / whom live next door to them, have volunteered to lend their tools.

7 The Jacksons who / whom live across the street from John and Jessy, have promised to help them put in a new lawn.

8 The Flitters, who / whose daughter is the same age as Mia, John and Jessy's daughter, are helping Mia make new friends.

9 Jessy, that / who works for a county hospital, will still have to commute to work.

10 John, whom / whose company is nearby, will be able to walk to work.

liveworksheets.com