

PRESENT SIMPLE

We use PRESENT SIMPLE to express:

1) ROUTINES [sometimes with Frequency adverbs].

I always get up at 7 o'clock.

2) General TRUTHS or LAWS.

Humans need oxygen to survive.

• The 3rd person singular ends with -S/-ES •

Lisa (she) walks to the school every day.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

We use PRESENT CONTINUOUS to:

1) Near FUTURE ARRANGEMENTS.

I am getting married on Saturday.

2) Something HAPPENING at the MOMENT of SPEAKING [NOW].

Look! Peter is coming.

1. Order the words to form correct sentences.

have got They eyes blue

a)

1	2	3	4
---	---	---	---

.

She dancing is

b)

1	2	3
---	---	---

.

love I pizza eating

c)

1	2	3	4
---	---	---	---

.

does sister my gymnastics

d)

1	2	3	4
---	---	---	---

.

you doing a test are

e)

1	2	3	4
---	---	---	---

.

2. Fill in the blanks with the Present Simple or Present Continuous.

Tom _____ to the dentist twice a year. [GO]

What are you doing?
I _____. [PAINT]

Grandpa _____ right now. [IRON]

Jen always _____ milk at night. [DRINK]

They usually _____ basketball on Sundays. [PLAY]

FREQUENCY ADVERBS AND PRESENT SIMPLE

When we use FREQUENCY ADVERBS with Present Simple to talk about habits or routines, the frequency adverbs could be located:

AT THE BEGINNING []	BETWEEN SUBJECT and VERB [ONE WORD ADVERBS]	AT THE END of the sentence [2-3-4 WORDS ADVERBS]
Sometimes, I go shopping on Fridays.	He usually goes shopping on Fridays.	He goes shopping once a week .