CONDITIONAL SENTENCES

USE THE VERBS IN THE CORRECT TENSE FORMS.

1.If Dickie _____(like) the stories about animals, he would have borrowed a book on otters.

2.If you don't hurry, you _____(be) late for school.

3.If the boy_____(not+wash) his hands, the doctor will send him home.

4.The teacher would have sent the boy out of the classroom if he _____(talk) all the time.

5.We won't have a picnic if the weather _____ (become) colder.

6.He would have hurt his foot if he _____ (step) on a broken bottle.

7.If you look out, you _____(not+be) wet to the skin.

8.If the master were angry, he _____ (shout) at them.

9.If the Vikings_____(sail) south, they wouldn't have reached Greenland.

10.The student _____(look up) the facts in the encyclopedia if he were interested in this problem.

11.If you had gone earlier, you _____(miss) the last train.

12.You didn't read yesterday's papers. If you _____(read) them, you would have seen the article on our school there.

13.This room would not be so cold if the windows _____(be) smaller.

14.I am sorry students don't read English books. If they _____(read) them, I'd lend them some adventure stories.

15.If he_____ (fall) ill, he wouldn't have played tennis so well.

16.If I _____(take) my umbrella with me in the morning, I won't get wet.

17. If I _____(win), I'd have split the money with my friend.

liveworksheets.com