Dear Sir,

I am writing concerning last week's editorial, 'Discipline in our Schools'. (1) , I do not write letters to newspapers, but I feel that I have to write on this occasion.

(2) , I got extremely angry when I read the editorial, which virtually maintained that discipline is the same as cruelty.

(3) , when I was at school, we were told what to do, and we did it. (4) , if we did not, we were punished. And if we repeatedly refused to obey, we were punished severely. (5) , this may seem hard to some people, and (6) , we resented it at the time. But we did not really suffer, and we learnt certain values and a certain self-respect.

(7) , I am convinced that discipline is essential if children are to have a sense of security.

(8) , a child needs to know what is right and what is wrong, i.e. it needs moral guidance.

(9) , to judge from their behaviour in public, many children nowadays have no such guidance.

(10) , physical cruelty would be going too far, but good sound discipline would make these young people happier with themselves and better members of society.
