Vocabulary knowledge

Crash Course in satisfying your customers

Choose one word for each number:

You suspect that your customers aren't as happy as they once were. First, existing customers seem to be 5 you for the competition almost as fast as you can get new ones. Second, your company has started to become the butt of bad jokes at conferences and in the press. So how do you set about measuring, and improving, your customers' satisfaction?

It's important to see things through their eyes. You can 6 your service for yourself, or watch your customers using it. A further choice is to carry out some qualitative research with your customers. Whichever way you choose, the goal is to find the 7 on which customers will form their judgement of your service, so you can frame your questions accordingly. It would be foolish to think you could know all those questions, let alone their answers, at the 8.

5. Departing / Abandoning / Defecting / Withdrawing

6. Tastes / Try / Experiment / Attempt

7. Topics / Subjects / Headings / Issues

8. Outset / Introduction / Origin / Foundation
