

Imperative and exclamatory sentences

REVIEW THE RULES

- An imperative sentence tells or asks someone to do something. It ends with a period.
- An exclamatory sentence shows strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation mark.

More Practice

A. Write imperative or exclamatory next to it.

1. What a strange looking animal the buffalo is!
2. Don't get too close to the oxen.
3. How bumpy and dusty this trail is!
4. How tired we are from walking all day!
5. Please ask the children to go to sleep.

B. Write each sentence correctly.

6. what a terrible storm that was last night

7. oh no, the wagon wheels are stuck in the mud .

8. please gather sage for a fire

9. pass me a piece of fried bread, please

10. how hot and windy it is on the prairie

Spiral Review

Write declarative, interrogative, imperative, exclamatory, or fragment next to it.

21. How brave the pioneers were!

22. They faced incredible hardships.

24. Travelled in a covered wagon for six months.
